

OFFICE OF THE MAYOR
CITY OF CHICAGO

RAHM EMANUEL
MAYOR

PROCLAMATION

WHEREAS, the Lesbian, Gay, Bisexual and Transgender (LGBT) communities of Chicagoland are an integral part of the vibrant culture and climate of Chicagoland; and

WHEREAS, the LGBT community continues to contribute to academic, economic, artistic and social spheres within and around our greater community; and

WHEREAS, the month of June was designated Pride Month to commemorate the Stonewall Riots which occurred in June of 1969 and are generally recognized as the catalyst of the LGBT rights movement; and

WHEREAS, the LGBT communities of Chicago have thoughtfully organized numerous workshops, sporting events, receptions, festivals, concerts, plays, dances and a host of other activities to participate in during the celebration of Pride Month; and

WHEREAS, the 44th Annual Pride Parade, one of the major and most popular events, will take place on Sunday, June 30, 2013 bringing together an estimated 850,000 people; and

WHEREAS, Chicago's diverse Lesbian, Gay, Bisexual and Transgender communities make an indelible impact upon the quality of life in Chicago and Pride Month serves as a call to our collective consciousness to persist in the fight to eradicate prejudice and discrimination:

NOW, THEREFORE, I, RAHM EMANUEL, MAYOR OF THE CITY OF CHICAGO, do hereby proclaim June 2013 to be PRIDE MONTH IN CHICAGO and encourage all Chicagoans to recognize the enduring efforts and ongoing contributions of the Lesbian, Gay, Bisexual and Transgender communities within our city and to our country.

Dated this 17th day of May, 2013.

Mayor