The Gale Cincotta Award

NHS established the Gale Cincotta Community Visionary Award to recognize outstanding leadership in the effort to rebuild neighborhoods. Gale Cincotta was a leader in community development and a founding board member of NHS. The award is presented to a community leader who exemplifies the wisdom, tenacity, innovation, and passion Gale demonstrated in her endeavor to make our neighborhoods better places to live and work.

The Gale Cincotta Community Visionary Award, formerly known as the Neighborhood Partnership Award, was established in 1990.

About Neighborhood Housing Services of Chicago, Inc. (NHS)

Established in 1975, NHS is a nonprofit organization committed to providing affordable resources to working families in the Chicago region so they can buy, fix, and keep their homes. NHS stimulates community reinvestment through a partnership of residents, businesses, and government. With the help of dedicated partners, NHS has leveraged investment of more than 1.5 billion in Chicago's neighborhoods.

NHS mission:

To create opportunities for people to live in affordable homes, improve their lives, and strengthen their neighborhoods.
