Chicago Student Recognized For Academic Achievements

Devin Thomas, Jr.

Devin Thomas, Jr. was recently presented a resolution from Alderman Derrick Curtis (18th ward) and Mayor Rahm Emanuel for his current achievements and academic success.

Thomas is a junior at Sarah E Goode Stem Academy and has maintained all A's since freshmen year. He is also a member of the National Honor Society, National Society of High School Scholars, and just received an invitation to become a member of the National

Society of Collegiate Scholars. He currently has a GPA of 5.0

Thomas also has been attending Daley College since his sophomore year; he is due to graduate in December 2018 with his Associates Degree in Computer Science from Daley at the age of 17-- before graduating from high school in 2019. According to his family's research, Thomas would be the first African American male to accomplish this mission in the State of Illinois.
