

Busy Bunny brings Easter cheer to children

The Easter Bunny was here, there and almost everywhere, it seemed, last Saturday--making stops at Archer Park, Hale Park, Madigan Park, Dooley Park, Danny's Chicago and a host of other places across the Southwest Side, encouraging children to hunt for brightly colored Easter eggs, handing out baskets filled with candy and trinkets, and even dancing with 18th Ward Ald. Derrick Curtis and a hamburger-head mascot. — Some photos supplied, others by Tim Hadac

