

Chicago Office of Labor Standards – 2020 Report

OLS Ordinances

2020 Highlights

-  In November, 2020 OLS recouped $5,783 in back pay that was owed six daycare workers who were paid less than the Chicago Minimum Wage from 2017 through 2020.
-  In March, 2021, OLS recouped $47,398 in back pay that was owed nine workers who worked at a tavern and were paid less than the Chicago Minimum Wage since 2007.

No license applications were denied nor were any licenses suspended or revoked pursuant to Section 4-4-320(a) for violations of the Illinois Wage Payment and Collections Act or Chapter 1-24 of the Municipal Code of Chicago