John is Founder, Chairman, Co-CEO and Chief Investment Officer of Ariel Investments, a Chicago-based investment company that focuses on undervalued small- and medium-sized companies. Founded in 1983, patience serves as the cornerstone of a disciplined approach that still drives the firm today. Beyond Ariel, John is a board member of McDonald's, NIKE and The New York Times Company, serves as vice chair of the Board of Trustees of the University of Chicago and recently joined the Barack Obama Foundation's Board of Directors.
