TEMPORARY PUBLIC CHAUFFEUR LICENCES

Effective January 1, 2012, Business Affairs and Consumer Protection’s Public Vehicle Operations Division will not grant requests for temporary public chauffeur licenses for the following:

1. Submission of completed and signed required physical exam certification form.

2. Submission of proof of completion of required continuing education course.

3. Resolution of outstanding debt owed to the City of Chicago; including, but not limited to water, parking, and administrative hearings debt.

All of the above should and can be addressed before applying for renewal of a public chauffeur license.
