

BIKEWAY PROJECTS CURRENTLY IDENTIFIED

100 MILES OF BIKEWAY IMPROVEMENTS

Projects shown here in red are currently funded and planned for implementation in 2021 and 2022. Individual projects are in different stages of outreach, coordination, design, and construction.

2021 NEIGHBORHOOD BIKE NETWORKS

Neighborhood Bike Networks in Austin, Belmont Cragin, and North Lawndale

DOWNTOWN

Planning for expanded protected bike lane network

FAR SOUTH SIDE

Continued investment following 2020 network expansion

At the start of 2021, Chicago had over 300 miles of on-street bikeways, including:

- 26.7 miles of Protected Bike Lanes
- 111.8 miles of Buffered Bike Lanes
- 100.1 miles of Bike Lanes
- 47.7 miles of Shared Lanes
- 17.6 miles of Neighborhood Greenways

- Existing Bikeways
- New/Upgraded Bikeways
- Current Focus Areas

INVESTING IN COMMUNITIES THROUGH INFRASTRUCTURE

