1

You can make an environmental complaint by calling 3-1-1, using the Chi311 mobile app or online at 311.chicago.gov.

You will receive a service request number that will allow you to track the progress and resolution of your complaint.

When possible, include source address or company name.

2

A CDPH inspector will be assigned to the complaint and likely visit the site to conduct an investigation. This visit generally occurs within 24 - 48 hours after the complaint is assigned.

Completion times vary by request type.

3

A CDPH inspector will file a report detailing their findings.

If incident violates Chicago Municipal Code, inspector will determine if specific changes are needed and/or issue a citation.

If warranted, ongoing monitoring will occur to ensure compliance with required changes, such as equipment installation.

4

CDPH inspector closes out the complaint once the inspection is completed. In the coming days, the inspector will file a report and post resolution on the City's data portal at data.cityofchicago.org.

Resolutions can be viewed by searching by the address provided by complainant.
