MS. LIGHTFOOT: Good evening. My name is Lori Lightfoot and I'm president of the Chicago Police Board. I'm going to be calling this meeting to order. Board member Ballate is not present in person. Is there a motion to permit her to attend via the audio conference?

MR. FOREMAN: So moved.

MR. EADDY: Second.

MS. LIGHTFOOT: Any opposed? The motion passes. The first item of business is approval of the minutes of regular and special public meetings held on March 17, 2016. Is there a motion to approve the minutes?

MR. FOREMAN: So moved.

MR. EADDY: Second.

MS. LIGHTFOOT: All in favor? (Chorus of ayes.) Any opposed? Motion passes.

Our next regular public meeting will be on Thursday, May 19th at 7:30 p.m. here at Chicago Public Safety Headquarters. At this time I ask for a motion to close a series of executive sessions for the purposes of considering personnel matters and litigation as authorized by Sections 2(c)(1)(3)(4) and 11 of the Illinois Open Meetings Act. Is there such a motion?

MS. FRY: So moved.

MR. FOREMAN: Second.

MS. LIGHTFOOT: All in favor? (Chorus of ayes.) Any opposed? Motion passes.

A report of disciplinary actions taken by the Board during the previous month has been made available at this evening's meeting. This report and the Board's final written Findings and Decisions are posted on the Board's website.

The Police Board, as authorized by the Open Meetings Act, has considered in a closed meeting a disciplinary case. The Board will now take final action on this case. Regarding case number 15 PB 2884, is there a motion to find Police Officer Rigoberto Marquez guilty of using his official position to solicit money from an undocumented immigrant, making false statements, and to discharge Officer Marquez from the Chicago Police Department?

MS. FRY: So moved.

MR. FOREMAN: Second.

MS. LIGHTFOOT: All in favor by a show of hands? Voting in favor are Board members Foreman, Ballate, Conlon, Eaddy, Fry, Simpson, Sweeney, and myself. The motion passes.

Is there a motion to adopt the written findings and decision that has been reviewed by all Board members who participated in the case?

MS. FRY: So moved.

MR. FOREMAN: Second.

MS. LIGHTFOOT: All in favor? (Chorus of ayes.) Any opposed? The motion passes.

The Board's decision in this case will be entered as of today's date and will be issued to the parties. A copy of the written decision will be posted on the Board's website within ten business days pursuant to the Municipal Code of Chicago.

The general orders and other directives issued by the Superintendent of Police during the previous month's meeting are listed in the Blue Book and are available on the Police Department's website.

The next item is the Superintendent's report to the Board. Superintendent Johnson, welcome. This is your first official meeting as superintendent. Would you like to give a brief report?
SUPERINTENDENT JOHNSON: Negative.

MS. LIGHTFOOT: Is there a motion to waive the oral presentation and receive the monthly report in writing?

MR. SIMPSON: So moved.

MR. EADDY: Second.

MS. LIGHTFOOT: Any opposed? The motion passes.

Before proceeding to the public comment portion of the meeting, I would like to update you on the status of the Dante Servin case. As I noted last month, the Police Board hearing of the Servin case is scheduled to begin on May 19th. This hearing will be open to the public and detailed information on the hearing will be posted on the Board's website in advance of May 19th.

Before I call upon members of the public who signed up to speak in advance, I want to make a couple of comments. Obviously, emotions on a range of issues are running high, but what we have seen in the last meeting is a number of people come to speak who have signed up ahead of time have not been afforded the opportunity to speak because of disruptions. People come from all over wanting to voice their comments and concerns to the members of the Board, members of the public. We believe that's a very important part of our public meeting process, and we would like everybody who signed up to speak in advance to have the opportunity to speak. So what I would ask is that that opportunity be afforded. There not be any disruption. I also would ask that at this meeting we remind you it's important for people to speak in the way that is respectful and consistent with common decency and civility. I would hate to have a situation where somebody is not allowed to speak at a public meeting because of the way in which they decide to articulate whatever their comments or concerns are.

I would ask for people to be mindful of these things before they are called to speak, and given that there were people who signed up last time that did not get to speak, I want to make sure that we hear from those people tonight. So I would start with folks who signed up to speak in this order.
Let's start with Queen Sister. Is she here? (No response.) Mr. George Blakemore, are you here? (No response.) EveAngel Yhwnewbn.

MS. YHWNEWBN: Good evening. My name is EveAngel Yhwnewbn. My question is for Superintendent Johnson. I heard that you said in your 27 years of law enforcement, you had not seen any racism. Prophet MLK, Jr in 1966, who was stoned bringing open housing to Chicago said Chicago was the most segregated city in the nation, and segregation and racism are Siamese twins. Also, last April 5.5 million was paid out for torturing suspects in holding cells, and five million of hush money for the kidnap and killing of LaQuan McDonald was paid out. So my question to you is, unless you personally witness this kind of corruption, are you still going to say you have seen no evil, hear no evil, and speak no evil while it's rampant all around you?

SUPERINTENDENT JOHNSON: In regards to your comment, that's not what I said. So factually that is an incorrect statement. I did not say that, but however moving forward, I'm committed to ensuring that police are held accountable when they commit acts of intentional misconduct. As I have stated for the last several weeks, there is a difference between an honest mistake and intentional misconduct or racism. I said earlier today that America has racism, the city of Chicago has racism, so it follows that the police department would have racism within the walls of the police department. However having said that, there is no place for that. The majority of officers who work for CPD want to do the job professionally and respectfully. Those that do not will be held accountable.

MS. YHWNEWBN: I thank you and I thank you for answering my question. I thought that was some kind of policy that you weren't able to respond to questions. So thank you.

MS. LIGHTFOOT: Dan Fein. (No response.) John Catanzara.

MR. CATANZARA: I'm guessing you're from IPRA?

MS. SISSAC: Yes I am.

MR. CATANZARA: Does IPRA allow the FBI agents to sit on investigations and statements of police officers?

MS. SISSAC: I can't honestly answer that. If they have investigations ongoing with the -- with an officer, they will certainly conduct their own investigation.

MR. CATANZARA: Well, it has come to some attention that FBI agents are not only sitting in on statements given by CPD but also conducting the investigation. So if you could look into that, I would appreciate a clear answer next month.

MS. SISSAC: Sure.

MR. CATANZARA: Thank you. Ms. Lightfoot, you made a lot of recommendations in your report there. I would hope that all of your Board members get a city of Chicago email address so the people can mail you directly, not have Max as a buffer and decide what you need to read and what you don't need to read. It seems only fair.

Superintendent Johnson, congratulations. I had one interaction with you. To me you were a stand-up guy from the get go so I appreciate that. In February I brought to your attention the CR against Commander Mark Busley. You said you were going to look into it. I was curious if you had looked into that appointment?

SUPERINTENDENT JOHNSON: Yes, I had Internal Affairs looking at it, so I'll get back to you about it.

MR. CATANZARA: Okay.

MS. LIGHTFOOT: Next speaker is Tanya Hunter. (No response.) Next is Ronald Reese. (No response.)
Mr. Blakemore, would you like to speak? We called your name.

MR. BLAKEMORE: Yes, thank you. To the citizens of our great global international city and to the police staff that is present and other staff, and to the member of the Board, I heard that HIPA or whatever is still in place, but with your task force you have studied and you could see a pattern of racism in the police force. The games that people play, why would you -- you have to study. Why would you keep that same system in place with HIPA or Internal Affairs? It should be changed. I have issues myself with the police department. On the old poplar tree they would hang old folks like young people. Mr. Johnson, the new police superintendent, you remember the last time when I came, I gave you all my paperwork about me being kidnapped and traumatized and terrorized by the police force.

You told me that you was going to call me, which you have not. So I'm still waiting for your call. If you have misplaced the information in my number, I'll give it to you again.

I'm glad that this is going to be an orderly meeting. I do not advocate our young people cursing and hollering at the police, calling people tall kinds of names. Stop it. Sometimes you deserve the type of conduct that you get and you get what you deserve. The seeds that you sow you reap. So let me know, Ms. Lightfoot -- here she is -- Honorable Ms. Lightfoot when my time is up. May God bless and I'm glad that you are going to an orderly meeting today. I was ashamed and appalled of how our young people were acting. Some old people are putting them up to it. We have always been a dignified people, a respectful people, and a law-abiding people. May God bless each one of you and in return, may you bless somebody else.

And Superintendent that everybody is praising, you just supposed to be just better than Butler. Don't forget that I gave you everything, and if you need it again, I'll give it to you again.
And thank you and may God bless and may God bless.

MS. LIGHTFOOT: Dolly Rivera.

MS. RIVERA: My name is Dolly Rivera. I live in the community of Pilsen and I'm a currently a student at NEIU. I'm representing One Voice Chicago 2019. I have a letter to present to the Superintendent Elect of the police department and on behalf of One Voice Chicago 2019. The contents of this letter are as follows: To concur to the firing of Dante Servin. As the new superintendent of the police for the entire city of Chicago, we expect you to fulfill those duties and responsibilities that are set by that office. We demand that your office begin to enforce Rule 14 ASAP, that if an officer is found to be lying in open court or on any official police document such as a form -- such as a two-for subject report, he or she should be immediately recommended for separation from the Chicago Police Department.

We also demand that the Office Of The Superintendent Police Review Authority all the recommendations set forth by the Police Accountability Task Force and implement those recommendations that come directly under the purview of the Chicago Police Department, such as resume publishing public reports, increase diversity in hiring and promoting, hire deputy chiefs of diversity and inclusion. Also, CPD should involve the community in officer training. That includes being trained by and partnering with community leaders, organizations, and the youth. There are others but we believe that's a good place to start.

Thank you.

May I also have permission to deliver this letter to the representative of the Chicago Police Superintendent's Office?

MS. LIGHTFOOT: Somebody will come and take that from you, ma'am. Thank you. Next is Eric Russell.

MR. RUSSELL: Good evening. The first thing that I would like to say is that the same sort of civility that you require from us at these meetings, we require respectful engagement when the police come to our community. So we want -- we would like to say that it works both ways. We can be on our best behavior but also we need to get rid of the shoot first mentality.

My name is Eric Russell. I'm a social justice advocate and spokesperson for the Betty Jones family. But this evening I'm not going to elaborate on the horror of the execution of Betty Jones. What I come before the Board this morning is more about preservation of life because your report really was just an exercise in futility. I mean, we applaud you for the information but the data in your information, we were well familiar with that data because the data in the IPRA report, that's Black blood, that's Black pain, that's Black terror.

We are familiar -- we are very familiar with the information. We do applaud you ma'am, for your courage. What I would like to speak to this evening is the addendum, what should have been in the report that maybe was not in the report. And those of us who are purveyors of peace, I want to say to the new superintendent, there are rumors of war. Our children will not let you kill them. We will not let you kill them. I don't come here as some threat. What I want to do is that I want -- when the time comes because our community is a virtual powder keg. Our children are not going to let you kill them, and we are not going to let you continue to kill our children.

If our children's pants continue to sag and they never put on a three-piece suit, we are not going to let you kill our children. We are going to defend every dreadlock, twist on our kids heads. If our kids never get a tight fade, we are not going to let you kill them.

MS. LIGHTFOOT: Thank you, Mr. Russell.
MR. RUSSELL: One thing I want to say, and Reverend, you can attest to this about the addendum. There are actually rumors of war and rioting and rebellion, Lieutenant. If you remember at the first meeting that --

MS. LIGHTFOOT: Mr. Russell, your time is up.

MR. RUSSELL: -- this is very important.

MS. LIGHTFOOT: Your time is up.

MR. RUSSELL: You wonder why it was sparsely and no one attended that award? Those kids wanted to come to the West Side and practically burn Johnny Miller's place down, and we talked them out of it. You know I write the insurance for the building. I didn't want to do a claims report and Johnny Miller's place is an asset. Then we went back to the second week and said these kids need to be heard. When we get to the meeting, you know what their kids are doing? They're reviewing Shaka Zulu tactics. They said they was not going to come to the second --

MS. LIGHTFOOT: Mr. Russell, your time is up.

MR. RUSSELL: They did not want to be bottle necked by the police with the lake being to their back. These kids are planning war strategies.
MS. LIGHTFOOT: Mr. Russell, you're well aware sir, I appreciate your time is up. Thank you.
Queen Sister, I think I saw you come in.

QUEEN SISTER: Blessings. I want to say we have to be real specific in what we're asking for. Superintendent, I want to welcome you as an answer to my prayer and you're everything I asked for and some. So we truly have to be specific. I come to ask a question because I think we the people have a right to know. I think we the people have a right to know what transpired during the conversation with you and Rahm Emmanuel during the weekend that he persuaded you to change your mind? I know that he is very tempting because that's what the Devil do. And I have to question it because again, you didn't apply for the position, and it comes at the expense of Black public safety because we are the culture that is impacted most by what's taking place on the street.

I want to say to you that I'm very disappointed that Negrophobia evaluation was not a part of the recommendations because it's real. And we need to -- I was hoping you would get real. I'm going to put my trust in God, my faith in God, and I'm going to put some trust in you. And I need you to know and I need you to put some trust in me because if you have been here 27 years, you basically know what's going on. They say you say you never saw a prostitute, never saw a drug. I can't believe that because the Mexican drug cartel --

MS. LIGHTFOOT: Queen Sister, you need to wrap it up.

QUEEN SISTER: -- Mexican cartels has made the Black life a living hell in the city of Chicago. I pray that together we can combat this violence.
Because if we are what we eat, this diet of violence have created a vulture culture. And I hope that you come to repair the despair, and let's start with the village panacea and this is --

MS. LIGHTFOOT: Queen Sister, your time is up.

QUEEN SISTER: Okay, with the Mayor's signature, so I would like for us to come together on it. That's why I'm here. Peace and love. It takes a village.

MS. LIGHTFOOT: Next is Dorothy Holmes.

MS. HOLMES: Good evening. As you all know, I'm the mother of Ronald Johnson, who was murdered by Detective George Hernandez, and he's still collecting benefits from you all. And I'm trying to figure out why is that ya'll rather pay a murderer than keep our schools open for our kids? And these kids suffering enough just by being murdered by Chicago Police Department. And this question is for Lori Lightfoot. When are you going to step down and take your crew with you?

MS. LIGHTFOOT: I don't plan to resign.

MS. HOLMES: We don't want you here.

MS. LIGHTFOOT: You have made that very clear.

MS. HOLMES: And Eddie Johnson, why was it so important that you be the next superintendent and you didn't run against the other three candidates?
And what is your purpose to us as a Black community?
How is you going to help us with your watch dogs killing our kids? How can we trust you if we don't trust them because I don't trust none of them.

SUPERINTENDENT JOHNSON: Well ma'am, to your point, I think the lady before you asked what did the mayor say to me to make me consider this. One of the things that he said was not so much that he needed me but that the City needed me right now, and it's kind of hard to ignore something like that.
But I can tell you this. Listen, it would be silly for me to sit up here and try to pretend like CPD does not have issues. We do. It would be silly for me to sit up here and pretend like there has never been people mistreated by Chicago police officers because there have been.

The comments about me saying there is been -- I have never seen prostitution and this and that, that's an incorrect statement. That is not what I said. I never said that, but I can tell you this. From this point moving forward, I make it my goal, my challenge to repair the public trust in the Chicago Police Department. Because if I can do that, it does a couple of things. It makes CPD better but it will make our communities better also. I grew up in Chicago. I raised my kids here. I have an inward look at what's going on in the city and what we can do to correct things. One of the things that I have been doing in the last month, if you haven't heard, I have been going to several communities, minority communities, African American, Latino, and doing nothing but listening to all your concerns.

Because I have to be honest with you, we may not always agree on what we think is going on, but I can guarantee you this. Anybody in this city that has a voice deserves to be heard, and that is just the truth of it.

So I'm here to listen and try to correct the things that have been done incorrectly before. That's not going to happen overnight, but I give you my pledge that I'm going to try as best I can to make CPD better than when I got here. The majority of the officers out there want to do the job professionally and respectfully. Those that choose to engage in inappropriate behavior, we have no use for them because those one or two officers make it tough for the good officers that are out there trying to serve the communities the way that we should. That's a tough boulder to keep pushing uphill. I'm just not going to do it. I'm not going to tolerate that kind of activity.

So as I said to you before, the officers that are doing the job correctly, then I applaud them. I pat them on the back. The officers that make an honest mistake, I will get more training, get them mentoring, coaching.

Officers that intentionally engage in misconduct, we are going to handle accordingly swiftly because we really have no use for that. What it does, it separates the community and the police even more. I can tell you this. One, I really believe that the police department is only as good as the trust and belief that the community has in it that it serves. So in order to repair this, I have to get out there in front of it and listen to what you all have concerns about. That's what I have been doing. I will continue to do that.

I know it hasn't been like that in the past, but the past is the past. You know, I know that there has been some things that should not have occurred that have occurred. I can't do anything about that. What I can do something about is what we do moving forward. And right now, right here in time Chicago has an opportunity to correct the wrongs of years past, and I intend to do everything that I can to do it.

The men and women of Chicago Police Department deserve it and the citizens of this great city deserve it. So that is -- I'm just asking you to give me a chance, give me an opportunity.

MS. HOLMES: Back to you, Lori Lightfoot. How long will it take for you to fire Dante Servin and convict him of murdering Rekia Boyd, Officer George
-- Detective Hernandez for murdering Ronald Johnson, and when will Pansy Edwards ever find out who was the officer that murdered Dakota Bright, her son?

MS. LIGHTFOOT: What I told you about Dante Servin at the very beginning, the first day of the hearing is on May 19th, open to the public.

MS. HOLMES: How long have you been coming here? It should not have took that long.

MS. LIGHTFOOT: You may have a quibble with that, I understand that. But the first day of the hearing is on May 19th. We have acted properly once the case got to us.

MS. HOLMES: I don't think that was fair because IPRA did not do their job with the murder of my son Ronald Johnson that ran past -- behind the police car, and George Hernandez shot him from behind and then they planted a gun on him. And I'm 100 percent sure before this case is over with, a lot of them officers that was out there that night, they going to be charged because I'm not letting this rest. If it's taken to my grave, that's where I'm going but I'm bringing a lot of them down.
MS. LIGHTFOOT: Next speaker is JerMont

Montgomery.

MR. MONTGOMERY: Thank you. To my -- from the community of Englewood, One Voice of Chicago 2019, I would like to take this time to thank the Chicago Police Board for the effort it put forth in the selection process for Superintendent Of Police for the city of Chicago. One Voice of Chicago 2019 consists of 77 communities that comprise of -- comprise all of the diverse peoples of the city. That is why it was so important that the selection process of the Superintendent adhere by the law set forth by the Chicago City Council. As a body you did that.

We are of the opinion that the $500,000 tab of taxpayers monies was used -- was utilized appropriately to properly scrutinize the credentials of the 39 applicants and properly vetted them. We firmly believe that the resulting three were the best of the lot. With that being said, One Voice of Chicago 2019 remains confident that the Chicago Police Board will continue to carry out its duties effectively and professionally.

And having said all of that, I have a letter that I would like to present to you, Ms. Lightfoot. My comment is this. We, One Voice of Chicago, believe that you did your job, and that we believe that the mayor sacrificed your efforts in selecting a qualified candidate for the Superintendent Of Police. And regardless of the --
I would say the lack of respect for taxpayers money and the selection process, we thank you for the work that you have done. Thank you.

MS. LIGHTFOOT: Thank you. Our final speaker is Robert More.

MR. MORE: It is the 21st of April of 2016.
Robert More speaking on behalf of the Institute of St. Michael the Archangel. Ms. Lightfoot, these documents, what I have encountered here over the years is generally a parrying, rebuffing, deflecting, other than Mr. Foreman, when he's conducting activity in that position which has been exemplary. Generally from your predecessors and thus far, it's a series of rebuffs, parries, and deflections, and eventually the 122 seconds has gone and it's on to the next meeting. But you claimed at the last meeting that you never received the copy of the document, which you had instructed me in the February meeting to present that to the sergeant at arms. So have you yet received the copy of this document from the sergeant at arms?

MS. LIGHTFOOT: I don't believe so sir.

MR. MORE: Can I hand this to the sergeant at arms? And can you answer the questions that are listed on this document which you did not answer in March because you claim -- or in February you had me to deliver it to the sergeant at arms. Can he then transmit this to you and can you answer these questions or at least answer them at the next meeting and not claim that you never received the document?

MS. LIGHTFOOT: Sir, I'm happy to take receipt of the document. I'm looking at it. It looks like it's single space, double sided. I would like to have an opportunity to review it.

MR. MORE: I'll grant you that.

MS. LIGHTFOOT: Thank you so much.

MR. MORE: So until -- just so it's not going on until September or October.

MS. LIGHTFOOT: I'll review the document.

MR. MORE: I'll give it to the sarge ant at arms. Whatever it's got in the back is a note I had to improvise. Mr. Superintendent, I have a question. I'm not exactly sure what the parameters are, if you're a permanent or temporary superintendent because it's really confusing to a layperson and I'm not sure. But whatever the situation is, my question for you is this. Before we get into other issues, I have had numerous superintendents, going back to Phil Klein in the time I'm coming to these meetings --

MS. LIGHTFOOT: Your time is running out.

MR. MORE: Okay. If you receive an order to confiscate firearms and/or any other type of orders listed in the Oathkeepers website as being of the types of orders an Oathkeeper will not obey; A, will you participate in the enforcement whereof, and B, will be order subordinates to order -- enforce any type of order? Or will you refuse to comply with any such type orders and order your subordinates to do likewise? How much time do I have left?

MS. LIGHTFOOT: Your time is up, sir.

MR. MORE: I'll ask for an answer to the question at the next meeting.

MS. LIGHTFOOT: Thank you sir. All the people signed up to speak previously have been called upon.
Is there motion to adjourn?

MS. FRY: So moved.

MR. FOREMAN: Second.

MS. LIGHTFOOT: All in favor?

(chorus of ayes.) Meeting is adjourned.
