MS. LIGHTFOOT: All in favor say aye. Any opposed? Motion passes by unanimous vote. The Board's decision in all the cases that we have just discussed in which the Board took final action this evening will be entered as of today's date and will be issued to the parties. A copy of the written decisions will be posted on the Board's website within ten business days pursuant to the Chicago Municipal Code.

Earlier this evening the Board is required by the Illinois Open Meetings Act met and considered minutes and recordings of all past closed meetings to determine whether the need for confidentiality still exists. The Board members unanimously agreed that it continues to be necessary to keep confidential minutes and recordings of its past closed meetings.

The general orders and other directives issued by the Superintendent of Police during the previous months are listed in the blue books -- that are these -- and are available on the Police Department's website.

The next item on our agenda is the Superintendent's report. We have with us this evening First Deputy Wysinger.

DEPUTY WYSINGER: Good evening. This portion of the Police Board meeting is generally used for the Superintendent to relay upon the membership the various crimes statistics that happen in the City of Chicago such as the murder rate, shooting rates, et cetera, et cetera, et cetera. I would like to take this moment not to follow that script, and I think use something that might be a little bit more personal tonight, and that's the very reason you guys and young girls are here, and that is protest. I'm asked all the time what's the difference that's happening in Chicago that separates us from Baltimore and Ferguson?

I tell people without any hesitation that it's the ways in which our young people protest.

Our protestors are eloquent. Our protestors are intelligent, and they don't react the same way that they have across the country. That goes to the reasoning why I don't think you see the violence in other cities that you see here today. 1 It's also 2 entangled in the youth movement. The majority of the crowd here tonight is of a young age. You're 3 This is your defining moment. 4 our future. This is your opportunity to write your notation in 5 6 history. You're going to be defined from here on out as to how you guys act from this point forward, 8 9 and I just want to commend you guys and let you know 10 that you're the fork in the road. Two things I want 11 you to remember. If you look at history, who is 12 remembered most for what they did to emancipate 13 their people, Harriet Tubman or Nat Turner? You be 14 the judge of that. Thank you. 15 MS. LIGHTFOOT: Thank you First Deputy. 16 this time we will now have a report from Scott Ando, 17 chief administrator of the Independent Police Review

MR. ANDO: First of all, let me say just because of a little confusion I have seen in the press and some of the conversations I have had that I want to make it clear that the Independent Police Review Authority and the Police Board are two separate entities, both of which are independent of one another and independent of the Chicago Police Department.

Regarding the case that is on everyone's mind, I want to assure everyone that IPRA thoroughly investigates every police-involved shooting as we did in the case involving off duty CPD Dante Servin. On Tuesday the investigation completed in advance of this meeting as I promised last month. sustained several allegations against Detective They included violation of CPD deadly force Servin. policy, specifically by discharging a firearm into a crowd striking and killing Rekia Boyd. Also, failing to qualify with the weapon he discharged on the night of the incident, also in violation of CPD policy; and also, inattention to duty for making inconsistent statements in his various accounts of the incident to Chicago Police detectives, State's Attorney's Office, and to IPRA.

As a result, I recommended to the Superintendent that Detective Servin be separated from the Chicago Police Department. As chief administrator of IPRA, I take my responsibility for conducting these investigations and making recommendations very seriously. As I did in this case, I looked at the recommendation and made the recommendation based on all the available evidence including forensic evidence and witness statements, and policies and procedures of the Chicago Police Thank you. Department. MS. LIGHTFOOT: Now, as you just heard Chief Administrator Ando has just announced that the Independent Police Review Authority has recommended that Officer Dante Servin be terminated in connection with the shooting of Rekia Boyd. Ι wanted to take this moment to reiterate the process by which a case comes to the -- within the jurisdiction of the Police Board. Again, I think based on comments from the last meeting and otherwise, there was some confusion about that. Τ want to try to clarify that if possible. We have also provided copies of a summary that sets forth the process by which a case reaches the Police Board. I believe those are available to the audience. If anybody wants them, we will make those available after the meeting.

In summary, if IPRA recommends termination, any such recommendation goes to the Police Superintendent, as this case has. The Superintendent has 90 days to either concur or reject the recommendation. If the Superintendent concurs with the recommendation, then typically charges are then filed with the Police Board, and only then do we have jurisdiction over a case.

If the Superintendent does not concur in the recommendation and a dispute arises, then a three-member panel of the Board considers the matter. It's only in these circumstances that the Police Board will take jurisdiction over an IPRA termination case. As you heard earlier, IPRA has made its recommendations of termination in the Dante Servin matter and now the case is under review by the Police Superintendent.

I will now call upon those members of the public who signed up in advance to speak. When your name is called, please step up to the microphone.

We ask that you limit your comments. Before we open the floor for comments from individuals that signed up in advance, I want to reiterate a few minutes about the importance of civility and respect.

Members of the Police Board view the comment section of our meeting as a very important opportunity for members of the public to bring issues of concern to the Board, the Superintendent, and IPRA.

Many people who come to these meetings travel some distance to be here and want to be heard. It is important therefore, that everyone who signed up in advance has an opportunity to speak. I would ask that when you come to the podium, please be considerate of the people who come after you and remember that we expect everyone to express themselves in a civil and respectful way and abide by the timeline. I would have take -- I would hate to take action because someone decides to deviate from these very basic standards and thereby deprive other people the opportunity to speak.

Tonight several people are signed up to speak about the Dante Servin-Rekia Boyd matter. That includes her brother, Mr. Martinez Sutton, who's here with us in the audience and sitting here in the front row. As a courtesy to him and his family who are here, he will be the last speaker to speak on this very important issue, and I hope that you will afford him the courtesy and respect by allowing all the other speakers before him the opportunity to be heard.

First on our list, John Perryman. Is he in the audience? (No response). Marrissa Baker. Is she in the office? (No response). Theodore 2 Daffin. 3 Hello everybody. I wanted to 4 MR. DAFFIN: walk over here because I wish I could walk, right, 5 because for a few years some doctor was saying it 6 was my imagination. I can't walk because my legs were beaten and I was injected with stuff at the 8 9 hospital. A while ago I had a police investigation I didn't do nothing. They were using people 10 on me. 11 I know, friends and some relatives to try and extort 12 money from me. I had to go to other countries 13 trying to get medical help. I was followed there, 14 I went to some hospitals here and was harassed. 15 kidnapped from the hospital. They wouldn't give me 16 medical help. I had damage to my stomach, as you 17 see, and my walking is not my imagination. I went 18 to over 30 hospitals here and nobody waited on me. 19 I tried to get lawyers. My phone is blocked from 20 getting lawyers because lawyers will not take my 21 case. 22 I have like estimated about 35 to 40 pounds of parasites in my body, some on my shoulder that came out of stool. I gave reports to the

24

Police Board, the Review Board, IPRA. 1 I qave 2 reports from other countries. They said oh, that is from another country. But I can't walk and I have 3 trouble breathing air, and the more I try to show my 4 damage, the more they try to say I'm crazy or 5 nothing happened, but I have reports to show it. 6 hope the police understand sometimes, you know, you have some bad police and you have good police. 8 9 good ones should stop the bad ones because what this is about, it was total harassment. I never did 10 11 anything to nobody. They were destroying my 12 relationship I have with people, trying to 13 financially break me. They followed me 24 hours a 14 day harassing me.

I would like to be able to make a report because I couldn't file a police report for over 20 years and be able to stop the harassment and stop them from signing my name and destroying my life.

If you want, I'll give you medical reports to prove the damage to my body. Thank you.

MS. LIGHTFOOT: Thank you for your time.

Mark Clements.

MR. CLEMENTS: Hello and good evening to the Board. My name is Mark Clements, and I'm one of the end the death penalty. We are a national organization that primarily centers our attention around death penalty related cases. From 1972 until 1993 John Burge is known to have tortured over 100 African American men and Latinos. His tortures continued even once he had been fired by the Chicago Police Department by and through his subordinates. One of his subordinates are Daniel McQueen, John McCann, Michael Keel, James O'Brian, and Michael McDermott.

The city of Chicago passed a resolution making Chicago a torture-free zone a few years ago, and just this year acknowledged that torture occurred to many survivors of torture such as myself. Passing a reparations package for many that were victimized as a result of John Burge and his subordinates without acknowledging the fact that there still remains to be over 100 men that languish and sit inside of a prison is somewhat cold hearted to me.

As a Chicago Police torture survivor, I'm ashamed that the city of Chicago and its Police Department remain to promote and practice criminal behavior with murder and torture at the top of the list, not to neglect to mention racial profiling.

I'm ashamed that the city of Chicago and the Police Department remain to pay the pensions of these former detectives that all work at Area 2 or 3, violent crimes units. I'm ashamed that the city of Chicago and the Police Department remain to pay the slavery that these men and women had to go through. When I say slavery, meaning, being placed inside of a prison knowing that you should not be inside of a prison, but you're mistreated and neglected by a system. All of you have some type of responsibility to address this. Burge torture in the city of Chicago --

MS. LIGHTFOOT: Mr. Clements, your time is up, but I'll allow you a few more moments.

MR. CLEMENT: Okay, I'll read fast. Burge torture in the city of Chicago will not fade away until this Board stops playing political football and honors the request of the people that all detectives labeled as Burge cops be stripped of their pensions. This means, and I mean totally means, the city of Chicago through your mayor, he acknowledges the fact that tortures occurred. You,

primarily, having the responsibility, knowing the 2

     law, make it right for your people. Make it right for your people. Make it right for your people.

          MS. LIGHTFOOT: Next is Ed Regalado is our next speaker. Is Mr. Regalado in the audience?

     (No response). Lorenzo Lenz? (No response).
                    Mr. Lenz is absent. Can I speak on 8
          MR. MORE:

     their behalf?
10
          MS. LIGHTFOOT: No you cannot. Next speaker 11
     is Crista Noel.
12
          MS. NOEL: Good evening everyone. First of 13
     all, I want to acknowledge Scott Ando for doing the 14
     right thing. I know it wasn't difficult, but I 15 appreciate it. I also want to acknowledge Ron

     W-i-s-e-n-w-i-q, who started us down this path of getting this done, and I hope that you all

                             I wanted to show you testified to shooting. That's how he testified to shooting. That ain't over your shoulder. That wasn't over your shoulder. You didn't see him shooting over your shoulder. You saw him shooting like this (indicating). That's what the detective testified to him shooting, like this, okay, not this. So I have a question for you, Scott. Did you recommend the termination under Rule 14 for false statements or did you recommend it under a different rule?

MS. LIGHTFOOT: You know what, Ms. Noel, I appreciate you have some questions about the IPRA investigation. If I could suggest Mr. Ando make himself available to you afterwards. I'm not sure it's appropriate for him -- I don't want to speak for you, but I'm not sure it's appropriate for him to get into specifics yet beyond what he has said. I'm sure he would be happy to meet with you after the meeting.

MS. NOEL: Okay. The reason why I'm saying that is because it's my understanding if it has been recommend firing under Rule 14 for false statements, he cannot work anywhere as a police officer. And this man does not deserve to work anywhere as a

1 | police officer.

MS. LIGHTFOOT: Thank you, Ms. Noel. Our next speaker is Tyrone White. (No response).

Next is Grant Newberger.

MR. NEWBERGER: Good evening. It tells you a lot about what kind of society we live in when the police superintendent considers it a public safety hazard to indict a cop who murders an unarmed woman. Everyone knows that McCarthy considers it a public safety hazard that Dante Servin was indicted for the murder of Rekia Boyd. If you say it's a public safety hazard for a police officer to be indicted for the murder of an unarmed Black person, then you're saying it's legal for the police to kill unarmed Black people. What does that mean for the public safety of Black people?

In this country, the lives of Black people have never been considered worthy of protection, and this statement by the Superintendent of Police is another indicator that the police have the right and freedom to murder Black people with impunity and it has to be stopped.

Look, the fact that not just Dante Servin has not been fired, but the Superintendent McCarthy has not been fired is an indicator that 1

 2 fundamentally to get rid of police terror, it's going to take a revolution to get rid of the white 3 supremacist system.
 4
                          But now -- Sir, can I just ask you not to 5
          MS. LIGHTFOOT:
     grip the microphone? I think that's giving us 6
     feedback.
                          Okay, fine. Now, even short 8
          MR. NEWBERGER:
 9
     of a revolution, we have to raise the struggle 10 against police terror. We have to put hundreds and hundreds of thousands -- hundreds and hundreds of 11
12
     people in the streets of New York City October 24th 13
     in Rise Up October in a vehicle to make everyone see 14 which side are you on? Are you on the side of 15
     continuing to kill our young Black and Brown 16 brothers or sisters or are you on the side of 17
     putting an end to that?
                          Mr. Newberger, your time is 18
          MS. LIGHTFOOT:
19
          I'll give you a moment to wrap up.
     up.
20
          MR. Newberger:
                          So I want to conclude by 21
                                It should have been done saying fire Dante Servin.
22 years ago. And finally, re-indict, convict, and 23
     send Dante Servin to jail.

Beamon (no response). Frank Bergh.

MR. BERGH: Good evening. I have something in common with Dante Servin. We live four blocks apart. We hear a lot of the same noise in Douglas Park in the evenings. But unlike Mr. Servin, I didn't acquire my property through a program called Officer Next Door, a program of the Federal Housing Administration which incentivizes the purchase of homes by police officers in the areas that have been designated for revitalization, including North Lawndale.

Based on publicly available information,
Dante Servin's house was last sold for $340,000.

The program entitled him to 50 percent of that money from the federal government totalling $170,000, therefore, in addition to the three and a half years of pay he has received from our tax dollars, he also received $170,000 of our federal tax dollars to incentivize him to become our officer next door.

With great privilege comes great responsibility. Detective Servin used that responsibility not to promote presumably peace in the neighborhood where he is sworn to serve and protect to keep the peace. Instead he chose to do something drastically different, ending the life of 1 2 Rekia Boyd. We can't bring Rekia Boyd back tonight. 3 We can't erase what happened, but if the purpose of 4 this Department is to serve and protect, I would 5 6 urge you in order to serve the community of North Lawndale, protect us from the officer next door. And after firing Detective Servin without pension, 8 9 it would be appropriate to institute reparations for 10 $170,000 of taxpayer money that he has received attributable to his personal net worth. 11 12 entertain a proposal for a scholarship fund for North Lawndale youth, particularly women of color, 13 14 as we move forward to actually repair damage that 15 has been done. 16 We aren't going to forgive, forget, fire, 17 terminate. We will move forward. So I submit that 18 for consideration tonight. Thank you. 19 The next speak is Valerie MS. LIGHTFOOT: 20 Papillon (no response). Niara Richards 21 (no response). Alyson Kennedy (no response). 22 Shannon Wilson. (No response.) Are you Ms. Wilson? 23 Good evening. MS. WILSON: I'm here tonight 24 just in support of Martinez and I just -- I don't believe that Rekia should have been killed. 1 I think she should still be here. And I honor life, you 2 That's the purpose of why we fight. 3 honor Rekia's life. I honor all these kids lives. 4 I don't want to see any other kids be killed, and if 5 we continue to allow the Dante Servins all over this 6 country to continue to have their jobs, then we will see more Rekias every day. I don't feel safe when a 8 9 person like that is allowed to continue to work on 10 their job. I don't feel safe. I really don't. 11 More than anything, when I think of the 12 police now, I think of death and that's bad. 13 don't think of being served and protected. We have 14 to change that. You all have to make decisions that 15 are going to be right, that are going to help truly 16 effectuate change so we can live and be free. 17 That's all I have to say. 18 MS. LIGHTFOOT: The next speaker is Martinez 19 Sutton. 20 Thank you. First off, before I MR. SUTTON: start, I have my mom in the room, you know, so I 21 22 would like to acknowledge her. She's the young lady 23 up here in the pink, you know. It's kind of hard for her to come out. I also have my sister, my older sister, and my cousin up front, you know. First of all, I would like to thank IPRA for the recommendation for the firing, you know. When it comes to McCarthy, and I expressed this to several folks, I'm kind of uneasy about his recommendations or the paperwork that he has to do because of the fact that, you know, he openly said, you know, he doesn't have remorse for the killing. Also he said that this shooting is justified. And that's been one of the hardest things to try to live with, him saying that my sister's death was justified.

Like I'm not sure if you all know, I'm pretty sure you all do, you know, to put it into the hands of this guy that, you know, back in 2006 when he got arrested for being drunk, confronting two officers in New Jersey over his daughter wrongfully parking in a handicapped parking lot, you know, him and his wife got out and you know, a firearm was brandished, and when they put the firearm inside the back of the vehicle, his wife went and grabbed it outside of the vehicle. He only got ticketed for it for $200, but also he had another event where he was also drinking. And long story short, it's like to put this inside the hands of this man, I'm really uneasy about. I'm really uneasy. If he can't be -if he can't contain himself around his brothers of the law, then I'm pretty sure he won't be able to do it for my family, you know.

But I'm sure you all know, because I have been out here since the beginning, and I'm going to fight to the end, you know. Not only me, but as you see the room is full of my brothers and sisters out here. It's not just Black, but we have Latinos, Caucasians, Indian. It's a mixed crowd. I mean, we aren't the only ones that's out here hurting, you know. We have the public that's hurting. The power of the people, you know. This whole thing been -- it's been fueled by people power.

I want to say to ya'll that me and my family are very gracious to have met you all and to have you to continue fighting for us because Lord knows it's hard. It's hard. It's definitely hard. Just to close it off, I just want to mention a couple more cases really quick. We have LaQuan McDonald, the young man who was shot over 16 times. The mother has been fighting to get a release. We got other people out there, Rashon Macintosh, Stephan Rice, Dakota Bright, even Mr. Howard Morgan, who's been shot 26 times and he's still fighting to get a federal charge removed.

I'm not sure if he got it removed yet, but he's out here fighting on a cane. Like I just ask, you know, that not only do you look into my case, but into my other fallen brothers and sisters that's lost their lives to the streets by the hands of the law officials.

MS. LIGHTFOOT: Thank you, Mr. Boyd. The last speaker is Mr. Robert More.

MR. MORE: It's the 17th of September, 2015, Robert J. More, associate administrative assistant to introduce Michael The Archangel addressing this is the Chicago Police Board component of the Jewish supremacist enslavement and extermination apparatus at this juncture in history.
