

CHICAGO CULTURAL CENTER

WEDDINGS

ABOUT THE CHICAGO CULTURAL CENTER

The Chicago Cultural Center is the perfect place to say “I Do.” The stunning landmark offers a variety of options for weddings, both big and small.

It is home to two magnificent stained-glass domes, one of which is the world’s largest Tiffany dome. The grace of this historic building is enhanced by breathtaking views of Millennium Park, located just across the street.

The Chicago Cultural Center is managed by the Chicago Department of Cultural Affairs & Special Events (DCASE). The Private Events office is operated on behalf of DCASE by Transwestern Commercial Services Illinois, LLC and is charged with upholding all City of Chicago laws and DCASE policies and procedures.

GAR HALL & ROTUNDA

CAPACITIES:

Seated Dinner: 220 | Cocktails: 550 | Ceremony Seating: 300

Newly renovated to its original grandeur, this space was dedicated to the Grand Army of the Republic to honor veterans of the Civil War. Offering impressive views, soaring walls rise to a coffered ceiling.

The Rotunda serves as the large foyer to the Hall and showcases the building's second glass-domed ceiling, designed by the Healey Millet Glass Company. These rooms can be utilized separately or as one combined space.

GENERAL INFORMATION

Clients may place a courtesy hold for a grace period of 10 business days. Once the 10-day period is over, the hold will go into first-right-of-refusal. If the hold is challenged by another party, the initial holding client will receive a short deadline to either confirm the event or release the hold to the challenging party. Private event holds not acted upon may be released to accommodate programming needs.

RECOMMENDED CATERING

The Chicago Cultural Center does not have in-house catering. Listed are catering companies that have repeatedly and successfully worked at this venue.

If clients would like to use a caterer not listed, the event staff will need the required license and insurance to grant approval.
