Subject: CANDY DROP 8.26.2019

Hi Steve,

We had an instance here yesterday afternoon where a license applicant tried to give a staff member some candy.

After she declined, explaining we had a no gift policy, he left the candy on the chair when he left. Staff member did not discover the candy until after he had gone when her next customer found it.

We called the applicant in today to finish his application and I gave the candy back to him and explained our gift policy. He thanked me and took back the candy.

Just thought I'd let you know in case there is anything else I should do.

Thanks!
