Subject: Post-event disclosure - G2 "Best B2B Tech Companies in Chicago"

Steve,

G2, a business-to-business technology review website based in Chicago, invited the Mayor to attend their ""Best B2B Tech Companies in Chicago" awards. The Mayor and Deputy Mayor for Economic Development were unavailable to attend, so I attended in my official capacity as a representative of the administration.

- G2 (invitation sent to Mayor, she is unavailable, and neither were Deputy Mayor Samir Mayekar – I served as a surrogate).
- Awards presentation of the "Best B2B Tech Companies in Chicago" and networking; I read the list of names of recipients.
- November 14, 2019
- No ticket cost; invitation only but includes broader Chicago tech community. There was food and drink, although I did not consume anything.
- No one is attending with me

Please let me know if you have any questions.

Rob
