Subject: Attending event in work capacity

Hi Steve and Lisa,

Anna Furby and I will be attending a Choose Chicago event this Thursday in a work capacity. The event, First Bites Bash, takes place at the beginning of restaurant week and is intended to promote the restaurant and tourism industry in Chicago. Samir was invited by Choose Chicago to attend (with two tickets), and myself and Anna Furby will attend in his stead. We will re-confirm after attending the event that we attended.

Thank you,
Nicole
