Hello Steve,

Hope you have been well. I'm checking to see how my team and I can attend the event below within the City guidelines. It's an event being hosted by Dell for all their customers and not specific to City of Chicago. It is also relevant to our roles in IT.

Thank you and please let me know if anything is needed from our end, in order for our team to attend.

Best regards,

Mario Morales | City of Chicago | Department of Technology & Innovation | Infrastructure & Operations
