Subject: Attendance at ALA Conference and Sponsored Meals Disclosure

Hello,

I am writing to formally report my attendance at the American Library Association (ALA) Annual Conference and Exhibition, which took place in Philadelphia, PA, from June 26 to June 28, 2025. I attended the conference in relation to City business, participating in professional development sessions, networking events, and industry discussions relevant to my role.

During the conference, my meals were paid for by the American Library Association Spectrum Scholarship, which served as the sponsoring entity for this portion of my expenses.
