Good morning Steve,

In accordance with the post-event reporting requirement, I am confirming that John Nootes and I, Bobby Trayanovski, attended the Cisco Elevate Chicago event on July 9, 2025, from 9:00 a.m. to 6:00 p.m. in our official capacities, at the invitation of the event sponsor, Cisco.

The event was a complimentary, in-person gathering designed for IT professionals, featuring sessions on the latest advancements in AI, security, observability, next-generation Wi-Fi, and digital transformation. It also provided valuable opportunities to engage with Cisco experts and network with industry peers. The event included breakfast, lunch, and a rooftop networking.

Please let me know if you require any additional details or documentation.

Best regards,

Bobby Trayanovski
