Subject: Traveled sponsorship confirmation - CSTE 2025

Good morning,

I'm writing to confirm my sponsored travel this week to the 2025 CSTE Conference.

The conference information is:

Sponsor: Council of State and Territorial Epidemiologists (CSTE)

Travel dates: 6/7/2025-6/11/2025

Conference dates: 6/8/2025-6/11/2025

Reason for attendance: I attended this conference in order to serve as CDPH's representative at the Vaccine Preventable Diseases workshop and to gain additional skills in surveillance for these diseases. In addition, I gave two presentations on CDPH's response to the 2023-2024 varicella outbreak (one on the abstract we submitted on the outbreak epidemiology, and one requested presentation on the outbreak surveillance methodology). In doing so, I shared lessons learned regarding leveraging partnerships for outbreak response. In addition, by attending other presentations on outbreak response and public health surveillance, I gained insights from other health departments regarding their own experiences and recommendations for these responses.

Thank you,

Shelby
