Hey Steve,

I attended the 2025 Convening Organizers (NYU Policing Project, Georgetown CICS, AMSA) (3rd Party) that funded my attendance and travel to New York, NY. The travel would took place from June 2-June 5. I was on a panel, the other purposes included learning, coordination with other sites across the country for continued programming. They covered the following costs associated travel: Airfare, hotel, and conference. The goal is to train others in topics related to alternative response, in addition to, learning from others ways to move the field of practice forward in the city of Chicago. Please let me know if additional information is needed.
