Subject: Attending and speaking at partner event

Hello Steve,

My colleague Katie Eckert and I have been asked to attend and speak at a fundraiser event of one of our programming partners. The organization is SitStayRead and the event is the Bark 'N Ball (on May 9 at 5:30, 1840 W Hubbard St.). The complementary tickets would normally be $125. My colleague would get a plus one and a ticket for her dog ($50).

Please let me know if it is for us ok to attend.

Thank you,

Lori
