Disability insurance can help protect the financial health of your loved ones

If you're unable to work due to an illness or injury, disability insurance can help protect a portion of your income. It provides financial peace of mind until you get back on your feet and helps replace lost income to meet your day-to-day financial obligations.

Changes in life = changes in disability insurance needs

Life changes like getting married, becoming a parent, buying a new car, and buying a home all have a direct impact on the amount of coverage you should have. Think about it ... the more responsibilities you have, the greater your need to protect your loved ones with coverage that may be used as income protection.
