• DFSS funds thirteen delegate agencies and its own DFSS Homeless Outreach and Prevention (HOP) team to engage and serve homeless individuals living near railroad tracks, bridges, the Chicago River, viaducts and alleys, Chicago Parks and CTA train stations and in encampments. DFSS began funding an overnight outreach team in 2018 to create 24-hour outreach coverage. All of these teams build rapport with homeless individuals to engage them in services. They also utilize the Continuum of Care’s Coordinated Entry System housing assessment tool and work to ensure residents in public spaces are on the system’s One List. The DFSS HOP team engages in nearly 4,303 encounters and delegate agencies log an average of 3,651 encounters each year.

• DFSS works in close coordination with All Chicago and the Chicago Continuum of Care (CoC), the federally mandated local body of stakeholders invested in ending homelessness. The DFSS Homeless Services Division’s work is informed by collaborative efforts with the CoC, federal priorities, and the community’s Plan 2.0 to Prevent and End Homelessness. Our efforts are also guided by the emerging needs and trends of Chicago residents seeking homeless services. Our approach is centered in respect and empathy for residents experiencing homelessness and we strive to ensure that homelessness is not normalized by the systems that intersect with our work.

Youth Services
312-743-0300 / www.cityofchicago.org/youth

• Chicago’s Department of Family and Support Services (DFSS) Youth Services Division programs are designed to support youth in reaching their full potential in their community, school, and work. The needs of Chicago’s young people identified from research and feedback from our communities are the key drivers in informing the development of the Division’s programming and continuously shape the Department’s priorities and goals. As a social safety net for young people, DFSS pays careful attention to our youth’s needs and the composition of their population to have the greatest impact. Building upon the City of Chicago’s rich history of providing human services for its most vulnerable residents, the Youth Division supports young people through programming in three distinct portfolios Enrichment, Prevention and Intervention, and Employment.

• Our Enrichment Portfolio provides structured, safe, and enriching activities for young people ages 6-21 outside of the classroom, between the closing bell and when working parents get home from school or weekends and school breaks. The broader goals of the Enrichment Portfolio are focused on 1) promoting pro-social behavior among youth, 2) supporting youth to thrive by cultivating relationships with caring adults and peers and 3) increasing youth engagement with school. These goals are in alignment with providing high quality services for youth throughout the city and are specifically targeting key disparities that undermine the well-being of youth in under-resourced communities.

The Enrichment Portfolio also provides afterschool programming to CHA youth ages 6-18. These programs are facilitated by delegate agencies that have the capacity to extend their hours of service to CHA youth. Programming occurs year-round, takes place within a 6 miles radius of CHA public housing properties and is near an existing public bus route. DFSS currently serves approximately 400 youth and funds fourteen delegate agencies in each one of the following CHA program models:

- Peace & Non-Violence
- Arts & Culture
- Environmental Responsibility & Stewardship

- The Prevention and Intervention Portfolio serves youth ages 13-24 who may need more support because they are not connected to school, may have been touched by the juvenile justice system, may be out of school, homeless or need mental health support. A significant portion of the portfolio’s investments are preventative in nature focusing on providing employment, career training, juvenile justice programming, and reconnection to high school or high school equivalency certificate. Selected programs in the Prevention and Intervention Portfolio include:

  Mentoring Program (MMI): The newest entry in the Prevention and Intervention portfolio, the Mayor’s Mentoring Initiative is a product of new funding secured by the Mayor’s Office to expand access to mentoring in 22 high need communities. The goal of the program is to provide mentoring to at least 7,200 8th to 10th grade males, with a focus on improving educational attainment and reducing crime. The department is happy to report that we have surpassed the goal of serving 7,200 youth in advance of the three-year benchmark and in 2019 will be expanded to include an additional 600 7th grade boys and 478 7th-10th grade girls.

  RISE: Restoring Individuals to Supportive Environments (RISE) targets young men ages 14-17 with prior involvement in the justice system. The program provides regular mentoring supports, including four hours per week of group engagement with a mentor and a civic leadership focused curriculum. Youth are paid for their time and put together a community service learning project at the end of the curriculum.

  The Juvenile Intervention Support Center (JISC): The JISC is a police station where juveniles who are arrested in Chicago Police Districts 2, 7, 8, 9, 10, 11, and 12 are processed and referred to case management services as appropriate. In mid-2018, at the request and advocacy of CPD the JISC catchment area was expanded to include districts 1, 3 and 15. The goal of the JISC is to prevent admitted youth from further involvement with the juvenile justice system.

  Reconnection Hubs: Informed by a landscape scan of service providers conducted by Thrive Chicago, the University of Chicago Poverty Lab, feedback from both practitioners and youth on the difficulty of navigating existing services across multiple organizations in neighborhood, and a review of promising models in other cities, the idea of the Chicago Reconnection Hubs was developed. The goal of these new neighborhood-based physical assets is to centralize coaching and navigation supports to reconnect youth back to school or work and partner with employers to better connect Opportunity Youth seeking jobs to employers who are searching local talent. Launched in October 2018, the first Reconnection Hub in the Roseland community will serve 300 youth in its first year (2018-2019) and 700 more youth in its second year (2019-2020). The Roseland Hub is designed to help Opportunity Youth (16-24) navigate and access the complex systems of social and city services to connect them with jobs, skill training, education and other opportunities. Since its launch on October 1, 2018 nearly sixty youth were served through early January. A second Hub will launch in 2019 and reach an additional 300 youth in its first year of operation. This Hub will also help Opportunity Youth (16-24) navigate and access the complex systems of social and city services to connect them with jobs, skill training, education and other opportunities.

- The Youth Employment Portfolio brings together government institutions, community-based organizations, and employers to offer career exploration, subsidized employment and internship opportunities to youth and young adults ages 14-24. The Youth Employment Portfolio flagship initiative is the One Summer Chicago (OSC) program, the second largest summer employment program in the country, serving over 32,000 youth annually. Selected programs in the Employment Portfolio include:

  * One Summer Chicago PLUS (OSC+): A specialized violence prevention program via youth summer employment targeting high risk youth who reside in the highest risk communities. The goal is reducing involvement in violence, either as a victim or perpetrator. Participants receive a 20-hour per week, six-week work experience and are given additional assistance to help overcome barriers, complete the program and develop transferable career and life skills.

  * Summer Youth Employment Program (SYEP): SYEP is a traditional youth employment program that targets youth citywide for a paid, six-week work and enrichment experience during the summer months. Youth participate in the program twenty hours per week.

  * Chicagobility: Piloted in 2018 for youth ages 14 -15, Chicagobility has an emphasis on project-based learning and activities that can be delivered in a cohort of 20 youth. The program is developed as a foundational track into career exploration, self-discovery and self-awareness which allows youth to develop their 21st century skills for employment. Youth participate in a minimum of 90-120 hours of activities that strengthens their community, builds civic engagement and creates safer communities.

  * Mayor’s Infrastructure Team: Partnering with the City’s two leading infrastructure departments, Chicago Department of Transportation (CDOT) and Department of Streets and Sanitation (DSS), youth learn about the structural workings of the City of Chicago while engaging in work experiences that supports neighborhood restoration and beautification efforts.

  * CS4ALL Coding Program: The CS4ALL Coding Program is a partnership with DFSS, Chicago Public School CS4ALL and Apple, Inc. The project will recruit 200 youth from CPS and DFSS delegate agency coding clubs with a goal of expanding their computer science skills and learning the latest Apple coding program “Swift Playgrounds” — a powerful programming language created by Apple and used by programming pros to build today’s most popular computer/mobile apps. CS4ALL youth will spend the summer of 2019 participating in a Pre-Professional Internship where they will develop computer/mobile apps, attend lectures and field trips to increase their exposure and gain hands on experiences in the technological field. The program will expose youth to the educational and career pathways in the tech industry and providing them the early skills needed to compete and win in the 21st Century.
