MAYOR RAHM EMANUEL PROPOSES APPOINTMENTS TO CHICAGO COMMISSION ON HUMAN RELATIONS

CHICAGO - Mayor Rahm Emanuel today proposed 10 appointments to the Chicago Commission on Human Relations.

"These individuals are dedicated to bringing together communities across Chicago, and are especially committed to eliminating discrimination," said Mayor Emanuel. "I'm confident these appointees will help educate and intervene when discrimination takes place."

The Chicago Commission on Human Relations has 15 members, including Mona Noriega, who is both Chairman and Commissioner of the Department of Human Relations. Board members are not compensated for their time and expertise.

The Chicago Commission on Human Relations enforces the Chicago Human Rights Ordinance and the Chicago Fair Housing Ordinance. The Commission investigates complaints to determine whether discrimination may have occurred, and uses its enforcement powers to punish acts of discrimination. Under the City's Hate Crimes Law, the agency aids hate crime victims. CCHR also employs proactive programs of education, intervention, and constituency building to discourage bigotry and bring people from different groups together.
