

LICENSE APPEAL COMMISSION CITY OF CHICAGO

STATEMENT OF LAURA PARRY, CHAIR

The License Appeal Commission (LAC) hears appeals from parties seeking a review of decisions of the Department of Business Affairs and Consumer Protection (BACP)/Local Liquor Control Commission (LLCC). State law requires a municipality with a population 500,000 or more, like Chicago, to provide its own License Appeal Commission separate and apart from Local Liquor Control Commissions to hear these appeals. The appeals are brought to challenge revocations, suspensions, or fines of existing liquor licenses made by the BACP/LLCC. In these matters, the disciplinary proceedings at the hearing level are examined, reviewed, and appellate arguments are entertained. Additionally, our Commission has reviewing jurisdiction over denials of applications for new liquor licenses. Applicants who have been denied their request for a license are entitled to a trial de novo to determine whether the denial of their application was appropriate.

LAC has collected, through the Department of Finance, $1,375 in filing fees to date. The Commission is budgeted for one full-time position.

As always, my office and I will work with the Office of Budget and Management and members of City Council to continue to lower operational costs and provide savings to the citizens of Chicago. While I have just transitioned into this position, our office is now committed to using electronic mail over regular mail whenever possible. It may be a small savings, but a savings nonetheless.

I look forward to fulfilling the duties of this new role and am happy to answer any questions you may have.
