Increased Community Policing Services – Chicago Police Department (CPD)

RESPONSIVE PROGRAM OR SERVICE	PROGRESS SINCE 2022 Budget	OUTCOMES/SUCCESSSES SINCE 2019
Neighborhood Policing Initiative (NPI) is a new model of community policing that takes patrol officers out of their regular duties and into a community-oriented and problem-solving role. District Coordination Officers (DCO) are assigned to a specific sector of a district and engage regularly with local residents, businesses, and organizations to build relationships and work collaboratively to address crime problems, form partnerships, and build trust between police and communities.	<ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>NPI is currently implemented in 10 of CPD's 22 districts. CPD intends to continue to expand NPI into the remaining 12 districts so that NPI is implemented across the entire City.</li></ul>	<ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Since 2019, CPD has expanded NPI to 8 new districts, which include Chicago neighborhoods that have the highest levels of violence and mistrust of police. A new partnership with Metropolitan Family Services was formed to co-develop a three-day community immersion training for new District Coordination Officers (DCOs) that would be part of their three-week training. The community immersion program was led by community members and provided DCO's with a comprehensive and meaningful training on the neighborhoods they will be serving.</li></ul>
