WHEREAS, Mama Africa Hair Braiding, for C.N. Russo & Co., Inc., owner, on April 13, 2001, filed an appeal from the decision of the Office of the Zoning Administrator in refusing to permit the establishment of a beauty salon in an existing 2-story building, in an B2-2 Restricted Service District, on premises at 2410 W. 71st Street; and

WHEREAS, the decision of the Office of the Zoning Administrator rendered April 11, 2001, reads:

"Application not approved. Requested certification does not conform with the applicable provisions of the Chicago Zoning Ordinance, Title 17 of the Municipal Code of Chicago, specifically, Section 8.3-2."

and

WHEREAS, a public hearing was held on this application by the Zoning Board of Appeals at its regular meeting held on July 20, 2001; and

WHEREAS, the district maps show that the premises is located in a B2-2 Restricted Service District; and

WHEREAS, the Zoning Board of Appeals, having fully heard the testimony and arguments of the parties and being fully advised in the premises, hereby makes the following findings of fact: that the proposed use is to be located in a B2-2 Restricted Service District; that the subject site is improved with a 2-story brick multi-store and apartment building; that the appellant proposes to establish a beauty salon specializing in African hair braiding only at the subject site; that the subject premises has been previously occupied by business uses, the last use having been a shoe maker/repair business which recently ceased operation; that the change of use from a shoemaker/repair business to a hair braiding beauty salon is a proper substitution of use under Section 6.4-7 of the zoning ordinance; that no violation of the zoning ordinance exists nor is contemplated and that the appellant has established the basis of her appeal; it is therefore

RESOLVED, that the appeal be and it hereby is sustained and the decision of the Office of the Zoning Administrator be and it hereby is reversed and he is authorized to permit the establishment of a beauty salon specializing in African hair braiding only, in an existing 2-story building, on premises at 2410 W. 71st Street, upon condition that the hours of operation shall be limited to the hours between 9:00 A.M. and 5 P.M., Monday through Saturday; and that all applicable ordinances of the City of Chicago shall be complied with before a permit is issued.

THE RESOLUTION:

WHEREAS, Natividad Martinez, owner, on May 9, 2001, filed an appeal from the decision of the Office of the Zoning Administrator in refusing to permit the establishment of a flower shop in a 2-story store and apartment building, in an R3 General Residence District on premises at 5159 S. Rockwell Street; and

WHEREAS, the decision of the Office of the Zoning Administrator rendered April 25, 2001, reads: “Application not approved. Requested certification does not conform with the applicable provisions of the Chicago Zoning Ordinance, Title 17 of the Municipal Code of Chicago, specifically, Section 7.3-3.”

and

WHEREAS, a public hearing was held on this application by the Zoning Board of Appeals at its regular meeting held on July 20, 2001; and

WHEREAS, the district maps show that the premises is located in an R3 General Residence District; and

WHEREAS, the Zoning Board of Appeals, having fully heard the testimony and arguments of the parties and being fully advised in the premises, hereby makes the following findings of fact: that the proposed use is to be located in an R3 General Residence District; that the subject site is improved with a 2-story non-conforming store and apartment building; that the appellant seeks to establish a flower shop in the non-conforming store premises; that the subject store was previously occupied by business uses; that testimony presented indicates that the store space has been unoccupied for at least 1½ years; that Section 6.4-5 of the zoning ordinance states that “a building, structure or portion thereof, all or substantially all of which is designed or intended for a use which is not permitted in the district in which it is located, which is or hereafter becomes vacant and remains unoccupied or is not used for a continuous period of one year, shall not thereafter be occupied or used except by a use which conforms to the use regulations of the district in which it is located”; that under Section 6.4-5 of the zoning ordinance the Board has no authority to permit the use requested; it is therefore

RESOLVED, that the appeal be and it hereby is denied and the decision of the Office of the Zoning Administrator and it hereby is affirmed.

THE RESOLUTION:

WHEREAS, The Three Arts Club of Chicago, owner, on August 3, 2000 filed an appeal from the decision of the Office of the Zoning Administrator in refusing to certify a private club with 92 lodging units in an existing 4-story brick building, in an R5 General Residence District, on premises at 1300 N. Dearborn Parkway; and

WHEREAS, a public hearing was held on this application by the Zoning Board of Appeals at its regular meetings held on October 20, 2000, December 15, 2000 and July 20, 2001; and

WHEREAS, that subsequent to the hearing held on December 15, 2000 the application was held under advisement by the Zoning Board of Appeals; and

WHEREAS, the Zoning Board of Appeals received a letter, dated June 1, 2001, from the appellant's counsel seeking withdrawal of the appeal pending before the Board; it is therefore

RESOLVED, that the appeal be and it hereby is withdrawn by motion of the appellant.
Bishop R L. Redding, for Triumph the Church & Kingdom of God in Christ, applicant, presented a written request for an extension of time in which to obtain necessary permits for the establishment of a 300-seat church with on site parking for 28 private passenger automobiles, on premises at 44 W. 103rd Street, approved by the Zoning Board of Appeals on October 15, 1999, in Cal. No. 275-99-S.

Bishop Redding stated that after months of waiting and management changes, the church has completed the bank loan to construct the church building.

Chairman Spingola moved that the request be granted and the time for obtaining necessary permits be extended to November 15, 2001. The motion prevailed by yeas and nays as follows:

Yeas- Spingola, Crowe, Konstantelos, Martin, McCabe-Miele. Nays- None.
George E. Koliarakis, for Walgreen Co., applicant, presented a written request for an extension of time in which to obtain the necessary permits for the establishment of a drive-through facility in conjunction with a proposed 1-story 115,772 sq. ft. Walgreens retail store, on premises at 6000-24 W. 63rd Street, approved by the Board in June 16, 2000, in Cal. No. 192-00-S.

Mr. Koliarakis stated that the primary delay in obtaining permits was due to compliance with the environmental clean-up requirement and approval by the City of Chicago Department of Engineering. At this time, civil engineering drawings have been approved by the Department of Engineering and approval of drawings by the Building Department is in progress.

Chairman Spingola moved that the request be granted and the time for obtaining necessary permits be extended to June 16, 2002. The motion prevailed by yeas and nays as follows:

Yea-s: Spingola, Crowe, Konstantelos, Martin, McCabe-Miele. Naye-s: None.
Kerry Dickson, for Jackson Park Limited Partnership, applicant, presented a written request for an extension of time in which to obtain necessary permits and complete the establishment of an off-site parking lot for 22 private passenger automobiles, on premises at 7015 S. East End Avenue, to serve the off-street parking needs of two existing 3-story apartment buildings located at 7010-12 and 7016-18 S. Cregier Avenue, approved by the Zoning Board of Appeals on July 21, 2001, in Cal. No. 234-00-S.

Mr. Dickson stated that the aforesaid parking lot is intended to serve affordable rental dwelling units to seniors, financed in part by the City of Chicago Department of Housing loans and low-income housing tax credits. The subject parking lot is being provided as an amenity to the residents of the buildings. Mr. Dickson further stated that during the process of applying for permits, the zoning examiner identified the need for relief from 50% of the required front yard setback in addition to the special use granted by the Board. The applicant met with the zoning administrator, and having subsequently gathered the information requested, are proceeding with efforts to gain an administrative exception.

Chairman Spingola moved that the request be granted and the time for obtaining necessary permits be extended to July 21, 2002. The motion prevailed by yeas and nays as follows:

Yeas- Spingola, Crowe, Konstantelos, Martin, McCabe-Miele. Nays- None.
MINUTES OF MEETING
July 20, 2001

Member Crowe moved that the Board do now adjourn.

The motion prevailed and the Board adjourned to meet in regular meeting on Friday, August 17, 2001.
