GREATER TABERNACLE CATHEDRAL (FORMER HOLY ROSARY PARISH) WARD 9
11300-11312 South Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr. Drive/341-359 East 113th Street
Report from the Department of Planning and Development

The Department of Planning and Development (DPD) finds that the proposed landmark designation of Greater Tabernacle Cathedral supports the City’s overall planning goals for the surrounding neighborhood and is consistent with the City’s governing policies and plans.

Greater Tabernacle Cathedral is located on Chicago’s Far South Side at the southwest corner of S. Dr. Martin Luther King Jr. Drive and East 113th Street in Roseland. Constructed in 1890 and designed by Solon S. Beman, the church campus has been a community pillar throughout its 133-year history.

Currently, there are multiple planning and development initiatives in the immediate area of the proposed designation. The $3.6B extension of the Red Line from its current terminus at 95th Street to a new terminus at 130th Street in Riverdale will add three new CTA rail stations in the Roseland area, including 103rd Street, 111th Street and 115th Street. As part of this work, the CTA and DPD worked with community members to complete the Red Line Extension Transit-Supported Development Plan. The TSD Plan identifies methods and resources needed to enable mixed-use development and enhance economic vitality, multimodal connectivity, and the pedestrian environment in the station areas.

In addition to this work, nine developer and architect teams are drafting proposals for three strategic development sites on Michigan Avenue in Roseland, based on a Request for Qualifications issued by DPD. Based on collective feedback, Roseland residents and stakeholders are seeking local wealth-generating businesses and local amenities, including traditional retail such as restaurants and merchandise stores to meet everyday needs, among many other priorities for the development sites. This effort is in addition to CDOT’s streetscape work in the area along Michigan Avenue and 111th Street. The streetscapes will consist of infrastructure, pedestrian safety and placemaking improvements with the goal of creating a unified, safe, walkable, and attractive commercial destination.

All these efforts also support the on-going work to amplify the impact of the Pullman National Historical Park, first designated as a National Monument by President Obama in 2015. The National Historical Park is expected to attract more than 300,000 annual visitors. The visitor center, opened on Labor Day in 2021, features educational exhibits about George Pullman and the Pullman Palace Car Company and the history of the first model, planned industrial community in the U.S.

Our planning work at the Department of Planning and Development is committed to Design Excellence which includes strengthening the culture of our communities and committing to cultural longevity and environmental sustainability. These goals are also consistent with landmark designation of historic works of high-quality design exemplified by Greater Tabernacle Cathedral.
Final Landmark Recommendation

Pursuant to Section 2-120-690 of the Municipal Code of the City of Chicago (the “Municipal Code”), the Commission on Chicago Landmarks (the “Commission”) has determined that the Greater Tabernacle Cathedral, consisting of the former Holy Rosary Church and attached Rectory (the “Building”), is worthy of designation as a Chicago Landmark. On the basis of careful consideration of the history and architecture of the Building, the Commission has found that it satisfies the following four criteria set forth in Section 2-120-620 of the Municipal Code:

1. Its value as an example of the architectural, cultural, economic, historic, social, or other aspect of the heritage of the City of Chicago, State of Illinois, or the United States.

2. Its identification with a person or persons who significantly contributed to the architectural, cultural, economic, historic, social, or other aspect of the development of the City of Chicago, State of Illinois, or the United States.

3. Its exemplification of an architectural type or style distinguished by innovation, rarity, uniqueness, or overall quality of design, detail, materials, or craftsmanship.

4. Its identification as the work of an architect, designer, engineer, or builder whose individual work is significant in the history or development of the City of Chicago, the State of Illinois, or the United States.

I. BACKGROUND

The formal landmark designation process for the Building began on May 4, 2023, when the Commission approved a preliminary landmark recommendation (the “Preliminary Recommendation”) for the Building as a Chicago Landmark. The Commission found that the Building meets four of the seven criteria for designation, as well as the integrity criterion, identified in the Chicago Landmarks Ordinance (Municipal Code, Section 2-120-580 et seq.). As part of the Preliminary Recommendation, the Commission preliminarily identified the “significant historical and architectural features” of the Building as:

- All exterior elevations, including rooflines, of the Building.

Also, as part of the Preliminary Recommendation, the Commission adopted a Designation Report, dated May 4, 2023, the most current iteration of which is dated June 8, 2023, incorporated herein and attached hereto as Exhibit A (the “Designation Report”).

Also, at its regular meeting of June 8, 2023, the Commission received a report incorporated herein and attached hereto as Exhibit B (the “Department of Planning and Development Report”) from Maurice D. Cox, Commissioner of the Department of Planning and Development, stating that the proposed landmark designation of the Building supports the City’s overall planning goals and is consistent with the City’s governing policies and plans.
On May 19, 2023, the Commission received written consent to landmark designation of the Building in a form dated May 18, 2023, and signed by Greater Tabernacle Cathedral Bishop/Senior Pastor Ocie Booker, representing the owner of the Building.

II. FINDINGS OF THE COMMISSION ON CHICAGO LANDMARKS

WHEREAS, pursuant to Section 2-120-690 of the Municipal Code, the Commission has reviewed the entire record of proceedings on the proposed Chicago Landmark designation, including the Designation Report and all of the information on the proposed landmark designation of the Building; and

WHEREAS, over the course of its 133-year history, the building has fostered congregations, including Holy Rosary (1890-2011), New Day Ministries International (2011-2016), and Greater Tabernacle Church (2016-present). It has remained a constant in the Roseland community, as a place of worship and a center for community, education, and culture; and

WHEREAS, Holy Rosary Parish is significant as one of the first parishes to be established under the Archdiocese of Chicago following its elevation from a diocese in 1880; and

WHEREAS, Holy Rosary Parish was the first Catholic parish established to serve the Roseland-Pullman Community. Its significance as the center of Catholic life in the community is illustrated by the monumental architecture of the extant church building; and

WHEREAS, the building is associated with the early career of significant national figure, former United States President Barack Obama, who has led the nation in community organizing, and personally attributes his political formation to his time at Holy Rosary Parish with the Developing Communities Project (DCP); and

WHEREAS, from 1985 to 1988, Barack Obama led DCP from the organization’s headquarters in the rectory of Holy Rosary Church as the first executive director of the organization. The DCP was a faith-based organization established in response to an increase in unemployment due to the closure of manufacturing plants in southeast Chicago. Under the leadership of Obama, the organization was incorporated as a non-profit in 1986, and established programming to support the community, including literacy, job training, and leadership development programs; and

WHEREAS, Obama not only formally organized DCP, but expanded the organization’s mission, outreach, and participants to unify Chicago’s south side residents against unsafe streets, poor living conditions, and political neglect through community organizing and social justice and educational programming. Obama’s greatest achievements while with DCP include the establishment of a job training program, the expansion of a city summer-job program for South Side teenagers, a college prep tutoring program, and a tenants’ rights organization in the Altgeld Gardens which led to the removal of asbestos from the housing project; and

WHEREAS, the exterior of the former Holy Rosary Church exhibits fine architectural details and craftsmanship through its design and use of materials. Designed in the Romanesque Revival style, the exterior is an exceptional example of an early twentieth-century church. It features restrained yet elegant architectural detailing, including monumental arcade windows and striking brick relief work juxtaposed against delicate stained glass windows; and

WHEREAS, the exterior of the church is one of two examples of Solon S. Beman’s ecclesiastical designs that were not completed for the Christian Science Church and also applied the Romanesque Revival style in lieu of the Neoclassical style, which he utilized for nearly two decades, following the construction of the former Holy Rosary Church; and

WHEREAS, though modest in its design, the exterior of the former Holy Rosary rectory illustrates the Romanesque Revival style through its form and expresses the congregation’s focus on their faith and ministry with a clear absence on excess ornamentation and unnecessary embellishments; and

WHEREAS, Solon S. Beman is one of Chicago’s most renowned late nineteenth-century and early twentieth-century architects. With over 1,300 buildings in Pullman designed by Beman alone, he was a prolific architect, designing countless residential, commercial, and civic buildings with a specialty in ecclesiastical architecture; and

WHEREAS, Beman is credited with some of the city’s most noteworthy buildings, including the nation’s first planned company town of Pullman, the Merchant Tailors Building at the 1893 World's Columbian Exposition, the Grand Central Station and train shed at Harrison and Wells Streets (1891, demolished), the Griffiths-Burroughs Mansion (3806 South Michigan Avenue, 1892, designated Chicago Landmark), the William W. Kimball Mansion (1801 South Prairie Avenue, 1892, designated Chicago Landmark), the Blackstone Memorial Library (4904 South Lake Park Avenue, 1902-04, designated Chicago Landmark), the First Church of Christ, Scientist (4017 South Drexel Boulevard, 1897), and the Fifth Church of Christ, Scientist (4840 South Dorchester Avenue, 1904); and

WHEREAS, while Beman and his son designed over ninety churches for the Christian Science Church, Greater Tabernacle Cathedral is one of only two known examples of Beman’s ecclesiastical work outside of the Christian Science Church; and

WHEREAS, the Building meets four criteria for landmark designation set forth in Section 2-120-620 (1), (3), (4) and (5) of the Municipal Code; and

WHEREAS, consistent with Section 2-120-630 of the Municipal Code, the Building has significant historic, community, architectural, or aesthetic interest or value, the integrity of which is preserved in light of its location, design, setting, materials, workmanship, and ability to express such historic, community, architectural, or aesthetic interest or value; now, therefore,

THE COMMISSION ON CHICAGO LANDMARKS HEREBY:

1. Adopts the recitals, findings and statements of fact set forth in the preamble and Sections I and II hereof as the findings of the Commission; and

2. Adopts the Designation Report, as revised, and dated June 8, 2023, and
3. Finds, based on the Designation Report and the entire record before the Commission, that the Building meets the four criteria for landmark designation set forth in Section 2-120-620 (1), (3), (4) and (5) of the Municipal Code; and

4. Finds that the Building satisfies the "integrity" requirement set forth in Section 2-120-630 of the Municipal Code; and

5. Finds that the significant historical and architectural features of the Building are identified as follows:
   - All exterior elevations, including rooflines, of the Building.

6. Recommends the designation of the Building a Chicago Landmark.
